To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing this letter to share my full confidence in Joseph Richard Carr as an individual and as a potential student at your school.

I have been a direct supervisor and teacher to Joseph for the last three years. During this time, he has repeatedly demonstrated his aptitude to work well with many different types of people, identify needs and work to resolve them, and learn new skills on the job. Joseph is a strong student. He has an aptitude for higher level academics and challenges other students to maintain a high level of quality in their work and in their thinking. Further, he organizes priorities and completes tasks in a timely and professional manner.

I have absolutely no doubt that Joseph will make a fine student wherever he decides to attend post-secondary schooling. He has a top-notch work ethic and will see any job through to completion.

Please consider this formal recommendation of Joseph and also feel free to contact me at any time to discuss his qualifications further. I can be reached at any of the above methods.

Sincerely,
